Party at Columbia Theater

Mrs. Roosevelt Takes Guests to See Crane and Jeffreys.

Mrs. Roosevelt entertained a small company informally at dinner last evening in the White House, and later, with her guests, occupied a box at the Columbia Theater to witness the performance of William H. Crane and Miss Ellis Jeffreys in Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer."

Her guests were Miss Hagner, Miss Oliver, Captain McCoy, Lieutenant Sheridan, and Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. Mrs. Roosevelt looked particularly attractive in a gown of pale blue net over chiffon and silk, with handsome pearl ornaments. Miss Hagner wore a modish gown of pale pink silk and lace, and Miss Oliver wore a pretty costume of deep pink crepe de chine, with a yoke and sleeves of Irish lace.

This was Mrs. Roosevelt's first appearance in society since the illness of her son, Archie, who has been suffering from an attack of diphtheria.

The last Sixty Couples Cotillion of the season was given last evening at Rauscher's and was undoubtedly the most successful of the series. The decorations in the ball room and supper room consisted of palms, Easter lilies, and spring flowers, and the Easter season was made a feature of the favors, Easter lilies being used for the flower figure. Supper was served at small tables. Charles H. Campbell and Andrew Y. Bradley led the cotillion, which began at 11 o'clock, and the music was furnished by a portion of the Marine Band. Mrs. Charles H. Campbell, Mrs. John R. McLean, Mrs. Bromwell, Mrs. Arthur Lee, Mrs. Andrew Y. Bradley, Miss Brooke, Miss Owen, Miss Carroll, and Mrs. Brown and Miss Rideney formed the reception committee. The guests included members of the younger married set and a large number of the season's debutantes.

A brilliant reception was given on Thursday night by the Royal Yacht Club to their friends at the residence of Denis E. Connell, its second street northwest. Among those present were the Misses Johnson, Iocca, Brinker, Cusick, Hall, Clark, Corcoran, and Rickenbacher, and Messrs. Gorman, Cullen, Allen, Jones, Tennyson, Howell, Hayden, O'Hanlon, Doyle, and Birney. The parlors and dining room were decorated in yellow and white hyacinths, and the color scheme was carried out in the food and refreshments served at the buffet supper. The club proposes giving its friends many trips during the summer.

Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Sutherland entertained a dinner company of young people last evening.

Capt. and Mrs. Warren C. Beach, of New York, winter residents of Washington, entertained at dinner last evening. Covers were laid for twelve.

Captain and Mrs. Ryan, the former the military attaché of the British embassy, have returned to Washington after an interesting fishing trip in the South. They were the guests of Colonel Thompson at his famous place, the Everglades, in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Mein, who were married in Washington Thursday, from the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner F. Williams, in this city, sailed today from New York for the first stage of their journey to their future home in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Arrangements for the coming performance of the Paint and Powder Club, of Baltimore, which will be given this evening in the Belasco Theater for the benefit of the well-known charity, the Christ Child Society, have been concluded with the most gratifying results. A number of the patronesses and box holders will have guests from the Monumental City, for the occasion, and a packed house is assured. The club will repeat its performance at the Belasco Theater, which they gave in Baltimore early in the week.

The box holders for tonight are Mrs. Gibson Fahnstock, Dr. and Mrs. Dudley Morgan, Mrs. Edward Simpson, Mrs. Jerome Bonaparte, Mrs. George Mayne, Mrs. William Irwin, Mrs. May, Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. Edward White, and Mrs. Emily Montgomery.

Among those in the audience will be Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, Mrs. T. Taft, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. Arthur P. Davis, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Alcott, Lady Isabella Howard, Mrs. Henry C. Perkins, Mrs. J. T. Story, Mrs. R. R. Hoos, and Miss Seward. The patronesses include Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, Mrs. T. Taft, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. Arthur P. Davis, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Alcott, Lady Isabella Howard, Mrs. Henry C. Perkins, Mrs. J. T. Story, Mrs. R. R. Hoos, and Miss Seward. The patronesses include Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, Mrs. T. Taft, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. Arthur P. Davis, Mrs. Hannis Taylor, Mrs. Stephen B. Elkins, Mrs. Charles Alcott, Lady Isabella Howard, Mrs. Henry C. Perkins, Mrs. J. T. Story, Mrs. R. R. Hoos, and Miss Seward.

The senior class of Trinity College entertained at a small and informal tea yesterday afternoon in the college, in honor of Mrs. and Miss Sutherland, wife and daughter of Senator Sutherland of Utah, the two sons of Senator Carter of Montana and Mr. Crawford. Miss Schofield, of Chicago, acted as hostess, and was assisted by the class: Miss Green, Miss Lennan, Miss Kennedy, the Misses McDonald, Miss Murray, and Miss McCreary. Tea was served in one of the girls' apartments, and the table decorations were on the class colors, yellow and white, jonquils and carnations being used. After the tea, an informal program of music was given by the young ladies. Miss Schofield singing delightfully, and Miss Green playing several different instruments, both classic and popular numbers.

Quietly Married At Noon

Miss Janney Becomes the Bride of Philip M. Knox.

A wedding of unusual interest took place at noon today, when Miss Cornelia Hamilton Janney and Philip Marion Knox were married at the home of the bride, 1812 I street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Sommerville, of Falls Church, Va.

Robert F. Knox, Jr., was best man. Miss Janney is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Janney, for many years residents of Alexandria, and Mr. Knox's parents, Capt. and Mrs. Robert L. Knox, are among the best known residents there.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and the couple left for a trip through the North. The bride, who is a handsome blonde, has been much admired during her school days, which she has just completed.

Only the relatives and intimate friends were present at the wedding, among whom were Dr. and Mrs. Charles Janney, Major E. H. Janney, Miss Nancy Janney, Capt. and Mrs. Robert F. Knox, Robert F. Knox, Jr., Lieut. and Mrs. James H. Reid, Misses Margaret Herbert, Ruth Bryant, Arthur Herbert, Powell Brooks, Henry L. Parker, Harry Beverley, Edmund Hunter, Bathurst Dangerfield, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Stamper, Jr., all of Alexandria, and John S. Stephenson, of Phoenixville, Pa., and Miss Dorothea Galewood.

Count and Countess Seckendorff were hosts last evening at a box party at the Columbia Theater complimentary to the German ambassador and the Viscountess Aoki and their son-in-law and daughter, the Count and Countess Hatzfeldt.

Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, of the Connecticut, was hostess yesterday at luncheon complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Charles Lothrop, of New York.

Mrs. Charles Goldsmith has as her guests Mrs. Myer Singer and son, and Mrs. Samuel Teplitz, of New York city, who will be pleased to see their friends tomorrow afternoon at 1910 Calvert street.

A. D. Prince and family, of 1523 Sixteenth street, will be at home tomorrow evening from 8 to 10:30 in honor of the engagement of his daughter, Alma, to Sydney W. Straus, of Baltimore.

Calumet Place Is Leased

Lowdens Take Logan House on Columbia Heights.

Mrs. John A. Logan has leased her historic home, "Calumet Place," on Columbia Heights, to Representative and Mrs. Lowden of Illinois, who will occupy it during the term of Colonel Lowden in Congress. This house is one of the oldest in the District of Columbia, with the old-fashioned thick walls, wide porch and grounds. It stands on a hill overlooking the city and has been remodeled and modernized on the interior, until it is one of the most comfortable of the Washington mansions.

Its chief feature is the memorial hall, which Mrs. Logan arranged some years ago for the souvenirs of the life of General Logan. This room has both an historic and domestic interest and is now used as a living room by Mrs. Logan. Calumet Place was leased some years ago to the late "Lord" Souly, whose widow recently purchased a home in Washington. The place figured somewhat during the civil war when it was the home of General Stone.

Mrs. Lowden and her family are old friends of the Logans, and it was Mrs. Logan who presented the Misses Pullman to society in Washington just after they left school, and who also chaperoned them to Europe. Mrs. Lowden was formerly Miss Florence Pullman, and is a woman of lovely disposition and womanly character, more fond of her home and family than she is of society. There are four interesting children who will accompany their parents to Washington when Colonel and Mrs. Lowden return next fall.

Mrs. Tucker, wife of Col. William F. Tucker, who has for a number of months been visiting her only son, Lieut. Logan Tucker, stationed this winter in Havana, is now on her way back to Washington and will spend the spring season with her mother here in Calumet Place. Mrs. Tucker has been entertained elaborately and almost constantly in Cuba.

One of her most interesting hostesses to Washington people was Senator's daughter, who was known here at the close of the Cuban war as Miss Evangelina Cienfuegos, the little prisoner at Havana, who was brought to Washington by her rescuers and whom Mrs. Logan befriended and chaperoned. It will be remembered that she was married in Calumet Place and has been living in Havana ever since. Senor Carbonne's yacht, which is a floating palace, was at the disposal of Senor Carbonne when he stayed there. She was also entertained considerably by Governor Magoon and his guests, General and Mrs. Bates.

ARTHUR F. NEVIN WEDS MRS. DEAN

NEW YORK, April 6.—Arthur Finley Nevin, one of the twenty-eight right-cous men in all Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Mable Lynham Dean were married today at noon in the Marble Collegiate Church. The bride recently obtained a divorce from her husband, D. A. Dean, of Pittsburgh. Mr. Nevin had fame thrust upon him at the Chamber of Commerce banquet in Pittsburgh, when his picture was included in a book that contained the faces and biographies of twenty-eight Pittsburghers, who were said to be the only really great and righteous men in the city.

Mr. Nevin is a composer of music. He said today that he thought maybe he was included among the twenty-eight righteous because he did not come to New York very often. He said it was not so very hard to be righteous in Pittsburgh, because a man was so busy washing himself and changing his collar that he had no time to be naughty.

UNIVERSITY CLUB ADDRESSES.

A new series of entertainments is to be instituted by the University Club. On alternate Saturday nights, in addition to alumni socials, prominent men will speak on topics they are specially qualified to discuss. Cultured fun, of the State Department, will deliver the first of these addresses, "American Diplomacy," tonight.

Every drop is delicious of this famous old wine. It has all the vigor and vim of the vine. No wines of French vineyards such virtues contain. It's the joy of best judges—Great Western Champagne.

The Only American Champagne to receive a Gold Medal at Paris—and acknowledged equal to the most select imported brands—was

Great Western Champagne

Extra Dry

You will recognize in Great Western the taste of the Old World's best vintages—at half the cost. It's the duty, not the quality, that makes the difference. The quality of grapes is not important to Great Western's flavor. Particular care in making and aging is essential, but the fine, mellow, yet delicately flavored grape, is necessary. Great Western is made from grapes having the same fine qualities as those grown in the best vineyards of France.

Cultivation of the soil, extending over nearly one hundred years, in the Great Western Vineyards at Rheims, N. Y., has developed the ideal vine that produces this fine wine grape. The process of making Great Western is identical with that of the finest French wines. It is absolutely pure and is aged for five years in the latest improved modern cellars.

Emile Berliner Upholds Sanitation of Dairies

Says Article Describing Suffering of Cows Under Cleanly Methods Is Misrepresentation or Description of Efforts to Discredit Improvements.

To the Editor of The Washington Times: The communication submitted by a District dairyman, which describes the conditions at a California dairy resulting in cows dying and owner going bankrupt—all due to too much sanitation—requires comment. It has all the earmarks of willful misrepresentation, gotten up for the purpose of discrediting the efforts which are being made in many municipalities all over the world for the purpose of checking the worst kind of disease production and child killing which our civilization has suffered under for hundreds of years. The world will never know how many millions of people have fallen victims to dirty, bacteria-breeding milk, and the amount of unhappiness which filthy stables and careless stable hands have spread can only be surmised.

"Gross Misrepresentation." That cows' tests should "chap and crack" and some of them be actually bleeding because they were washed before milking; that the dairyman lost 50 per cent of his herd on account of tuberculin tests; that the cows stood in "cold, drafty sheds with hard, wet floors," and that the milk "was put through several thinning processes—all in the name of sanitary reform"—these descriptions show either gross misrepresentations or the sanitary reforms were intentionally exaggerated by the dairy hands in order to make up a "horrible example" for the purposes of the surrounding dairy interests.

Milk Source of Disease. There is enough literature extant on epidemics produced by unsanitary milk to discredit the whole dairy industry. Scarlet fever has been proved to originate in the cow, and tuberculosis, both of the lungs and of the intestines, is going to be nailed down as being principally of dairy origin, having as such been strongly suspected by able investigators. Besides diseases originating in milk there is a big record of epidemics in which milk furnished the culture medium by which the diseases were spread in the community. Dairy interests can do no better than willingly and intelligently introduce such reforms as will be recommended by milk commissions or milk conferences, or which the Government may try to enforce by new milk legislation.

Opponents of Sanitation.

The public may expect that a certain proportion of dairymen will try to confound the work of the sanitary reformers and "quack" the product of sanitary dairies by just such underhanded attempts, and worse ones, as the article in yesterday's Times indicates. But the public will also determine whether its confidence should be placed with interested parties or with milk conferences or milk commissions, composed of the foremost thinkers on sanitary matters, whose aim in life is to serve the people, to save lives, and to increase the sum of human happiness.

Academy of Sciences To Elect President

Alexander Agassiz Announces His Retirement—Society Will Meet on April 16 For Session of Four Days.

Active preparations are being made for the entertainment of the members of the National Academy of Sciences, which is to hold its annual meeting here for a four days' session, beginning April 16. The association is the honor society of the scientists of this country, having been incorporated by act of Congress in 1863, and election to membership in it is regarded as an acknowledgment of eminent accomplishment in some branch of scientific research. Its yearly meeting is, from the point of view of the scientist, the greatest occasion of the year.

Membership Limit Passed. The membership has reached ninety-seven, the original limit to fifty having been raised some years ago. Of this membership probably a third will attend. The majority of those coming will present papers, it being the custom for the investigators along any line to offer their findings at the annual meeting. In this way the meeting is regarded as an appropriate time for its members to announce any new discovery in any branch of science.

Prof. Alexander Agassiz, of Cambridge, Mass., has served as president of the organization for a number of years, but has announced that he will retire from that office this year, his successor to be elected at the coming meeting.

Another officer whose term ends with the present year is the home secretary, Arnold Hague. Much interest is manifested in the choice of these officers, and of new members, a maximum of five of whom may be chosen for a given year. Last year three new members were admitted, and will take part in this year's meeting. They are Josiah Royce, of Cambridge; Benjamin B. Scott, of Princeton, and Benjamin O. Pierce, of Cambridge. In the year two members have died—Samuel P. Langley, of the Smithsonian Institution, and S. L. Penfield, of Yale University.

QUARTERLY MEET M. C. T. U.

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the District of Columbia will be held on Tuesday, April 9, in Dumbarton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. Two sessions will be held, one at 10:30 a. m. and the concluding session at 1:45 p. m. Reports of officers and addresses will form the program.

American Watches are the Best in the World

WALTHAM WATCHES are the best American watches. We know the people and the tools that make Waltham Watches, and we know they are unequalled in the world. We pay the highest wages paid anywhere, and the result is the finest product made anywhere. If a dealer tells you that a foreign watch is better, he does so because the amount saved in wages by the Swiss manufacturer goes to the dealer himself as an excessive profit on the sale.

How to Exercise the Bowels

YOUR intestines are lined inside with millions of suckers, that draw the Nutrition from food as it passes them. But, if the food passes too slowly, it decays before it gets through. Then the little suckers draw Poison from it instead of Nutrition. This Poison makes a Gas that injures your system more than the food should have nourished it. The usual remedy for this delayed passage (called Constipation) is to take a big dose of Castor Oil.

This merely makes slippery the passage for unloading the current cargo.

It does not help the Cause of delay a trifle. It does slacken the Bowel-Muscles, and weakens them for their next task.

Another remedy is to take a strong "Physic," like Salts, Calomel, Jalap, Phosphate of Sodium, Aperient Water, or any of these mixed.

What does the "Physic" do? It merely flushes-out the Bowels with a waste of Digestive Juice, set flowing into the intestines through the tiny suckers.

Cascarets are the only safe medicine for the bowels.

They do not waste any precious fluid of the Bowels, as "Physics" do.

They do not relax the Intestines by greasing them inside like Castor Oil or Glycerine. They simply stimulate the Bowel-Muscles to do their work naturally, comfortably, and nutritiously.

They are put up in thin, flat, round-cornered Enamel boxes, so they can be carried in a man's vest pocket, or in a woman's purse, all the time, without bulk or trouble.

The time to take a Cascaret is not only when you are Sick, but when you first suspect you need one. Price, 10c a box.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC." All druggists.
